Her name is Ma Young-lan.

Sir Jim, Miss
Ma is known as a talented individual
of the Dokrim
Bang.

As the name suggests, the Dokrim Bang
know how to control poison
very well.

But Miss Ma
over there studies
the poison instead.
To cure many people in Muim.

She uses
the harmful poisons to help others,
instead.

what an interesting
job.

It is very nice to meet
you.

It was...

love at first sight.

Chapter 27
Snow White - 3

After that day,
we met quite often.

Of course, it
was a meeting in order to exchange
information about techniques

However, my feelings for him grew with the information I collected.

I'm sure...

I've lived
to meet this man!

His
appearance,

His
voice,

and his touch.

I want to make everything
mine!!

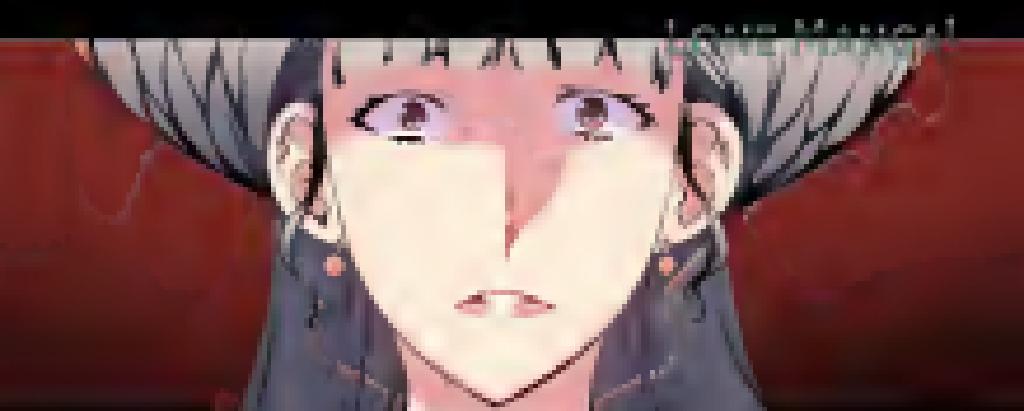

In spite of that..

I should be the one by his side...

Why is there another woman over there?!!

Ah...

That's right...

If that woman wasn't around...

If only that woman
wasn't around...

I would be the one standing there!

Dear/

What is happening
to you, my dear??

And so...

That man should've became mine, naturally...

Yet why...?

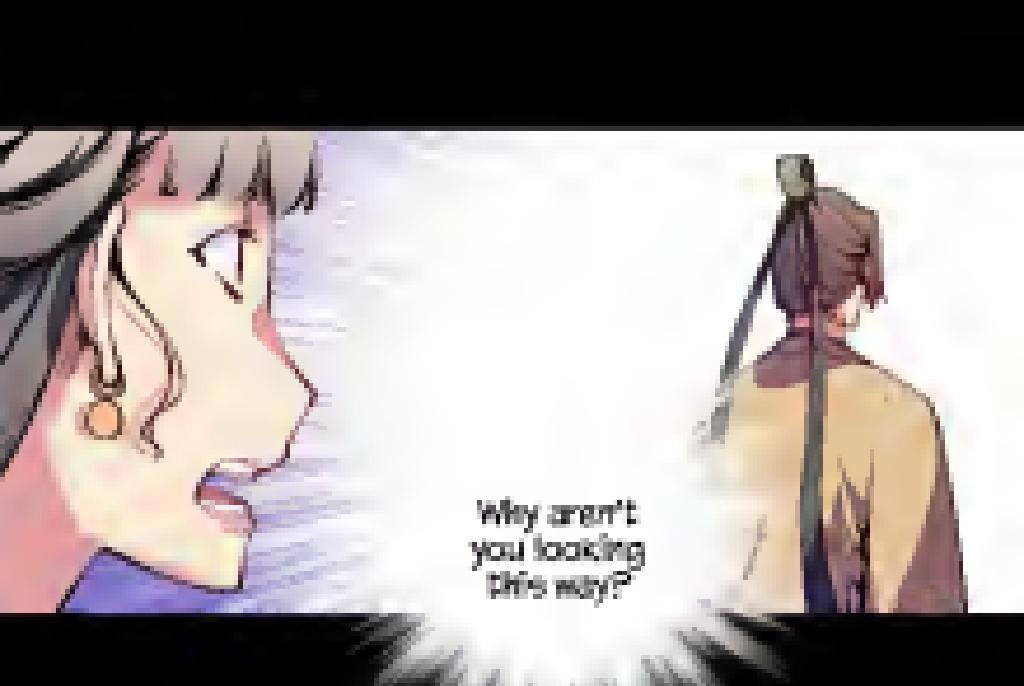

Why are you only looking further away...?!

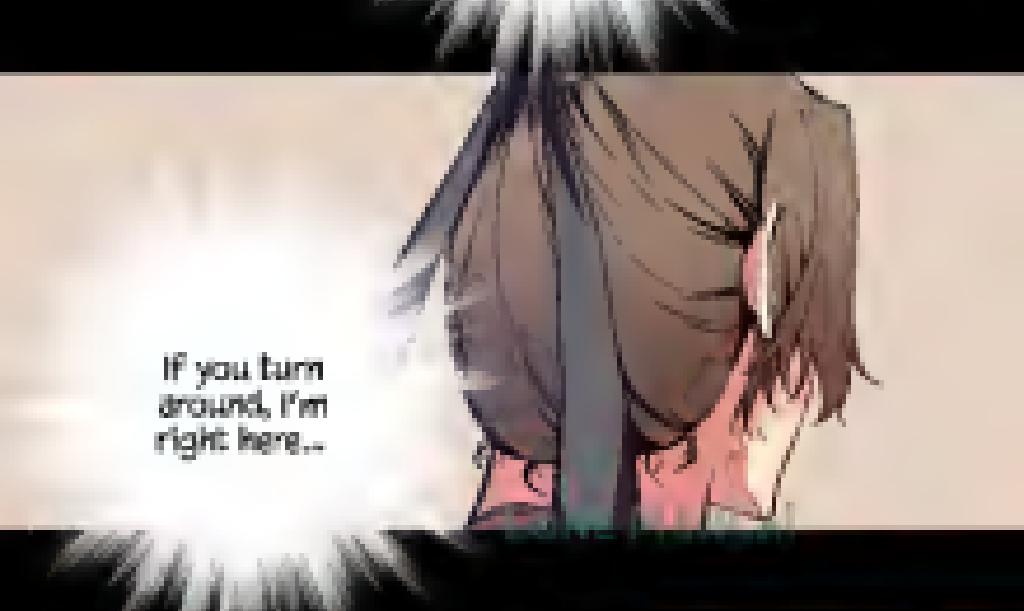

Why...?

I'm right next to you...

Why aren't you looking
this way?

If you turn around, I'm right here..

yet why
aren't you looking at me?!

...

If... If I can't have him...

I'll make him
mine by force

so that...

he will become
mine, eternally.

So that he can only

live within me, eternally.

Father!!

I'll definitely finish you off
this time!!

I see...

I never knew
you had that kind of relationship
with my father.

My father is already deceased.

but for saving
his life once,
I cannot thank you enough.

I'm sorry to have treated
such a person
this way.

It's nothing.

Why would you give thanks
for something like this?

But, that aside, I'm very disappointed...

that someone who gave me this incredible technique was killed that easily...

Father...

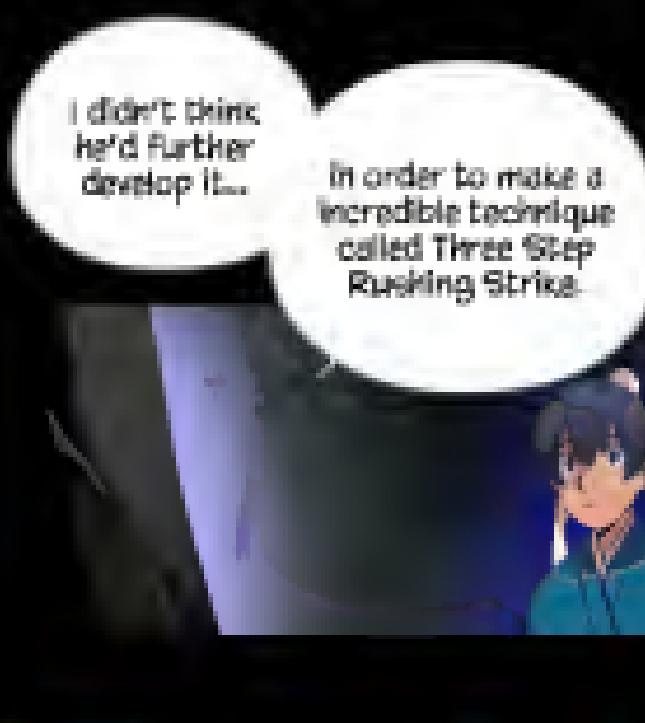

had more talent in theorizing techniques than utilizing them.

That's why he made Mother's Shifting Stance into a more stable and complete technique.

I didn't think he'd further develop it...

In order to make a incredible technique called Three Step Rushing Strike...

...

Is... Is this really ok?

What are you talking about?

No matter how grateful you are,

giving this incredible technique to someone like me...

Not to mention, my ability to use it is...

Hahaha...

I don't think you need to start worrying about that so quickly.

It's normal for one to be unable to use high-end technique right after receiving it.

Right...

But I believe that the Three-Step Rushing strike is befitting of you.

because I know how hard you tried to save a Nobody like me...

I believe that higher-end skills are better off being passed down to those who would use it for others, not yourself.

Also, you possess such a wealth of knowledge in the medicinal field...

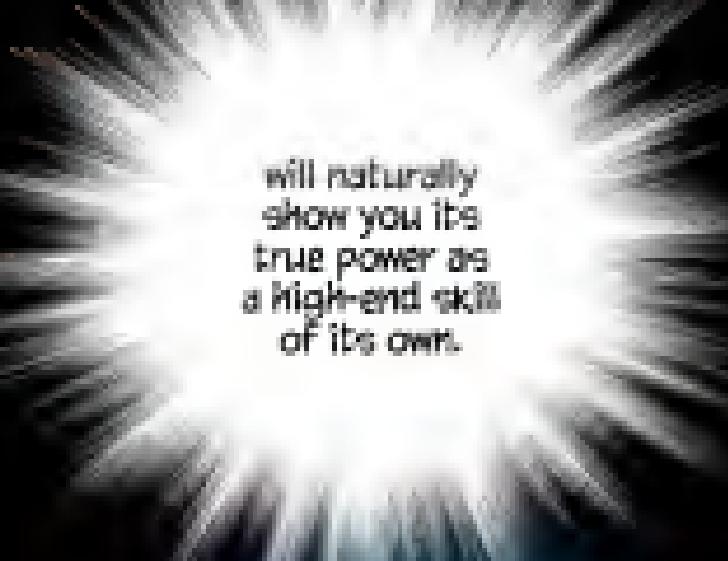

at your age. That makes you more incredible than you think.

So...

I hope you'll have more confidence in yourself.

Once you do, your Three Step Rushing Strike will naturally

show you its true power as a high-end skill

of its own.

I used the true power of this technique
on your daughter...!!

I was going to tell you
earlier, but...

Your internal wounds from my attack were worse
than I thought...

I took care
of the needle
here,

but I don't think I'll be able to treat
your internal wounds
with the medicine I have right now.

...

So we should start preparing it
as soon as we get out of here...

I don't think we have the time...

What?

Now that the witch has the Crimson White
Flower...

I don't know
if she'll give us
the chance.

...A witch...

That's...

Hmm?

What?

The Witch of the Mysterious Shifting
Forrest~??!

I really can't believe this...

The witch is actually that woman...

Then...

The soldiers who came here
and lost their lives...

You should know if you've read my Shifting Stance.

I've never killed
a single person
in my life!

It's enough
to chase them off.
Why would I go as far as to kill them?

Then how did they lose their lives...?

It's probably that woman, she's good with poisons and needles.

In order to brand me a "witch".

she needed as many sacrifices as she could find!

That witch would go to even further lengths to achieve her goal!

...

C-Could...

my brothers
be...?!

Ugh...

Kuu...

Kuugh...

Ugh...

Huff
